

'The Root Causes of Anarchy'

An editorial which has been given wide currency is one aired by George Putnam, a popular news commentator who is on the staff of KTLA, a Los Angeles television station.

In June, he spoke to the subject of the "root causes of growing anarchy." The presentation created so much interest that it was repeated the following day.

Many of those who heard the talk called our attention to it. We think it is cogent, meaningful, and stimulating. It is presented here, edited only slightly in the interest of space:

"We are now duty bound to take stock of ourselves and to thoroughly evaluate the root causes of growing anarchy in this country. This is a nation of laws and it must, if we are to survive, be a nation of law abiding people. Law is based on constant principles that have been accepted and have proved workable throughout the ages.

"It is when man puts himself above the law and accepted principles that man and his country begin to deteriorate. Regardless of the worthiness of a cause or a goal, our society cannot exist if each person chooses the laws which he will obey and those which he will break.

"Law is not just a matter of whim — where if one disagrees with a certain law, he may feel justified in breaking that law. Such a concept is entirely inconsistent with our democratic processes.

Many of our current problems began with individuals who trespassed and blocked entrances of business establishments, in defiance of the law, so as to emphasize their complaints. This all seemed harmless until it went unpunished, until it was sanctioned, until it was encouraged by some well meaning but misguided leaders.

"This tolerance of seemingly insignificant misdemeanors committed by demonstrators has created contempt for all law and order and has made law breaking an almost respectable pastime. Civil disobedience in America has grown from scattered altercations into major riots, with burning, looting, sniping, killing — and assassinations.

"Justice for all citizens is never achieved by taking the law into one's own hands. Hand in hand with this new form of no-law-abidance has grown the belief on the part of too many citizens that no one is really guilty of anything — few tears are shed for the innocent victim — to hell with the rights of decent people — pity the poor criminal.

"And here is an attempt now to blame all of society for the individual's guilt. And many individuals are refusing to accept their own responsibility for their own wrongdoing. There is a growing disrespect for law enforcement officers — and there are vicious attacks upon their persons.

"There is a softness and watering down of our laws by the court. And this is resulting in hardened criminals, subversives, and too many members of our society thumbing their noses at the courts. The criminal and the subversive has made it his business to learn how to circumvent and undercut the law to avoid paying for his crimes.

"Has America forgotten the words of President Theodore Roosevelt? He said, 'No man is above the law, and no man is below it. Nor do we ask any man's permission when we require him to obey the law.'

"But it would appear that too many of our citizens are schizoid — suffer from a split personality when it comes to understanding the application of law and order and law enforcement.

"At the Ambassador Hotel, in the hysteria that immediately followed the shooting of Senator Robert Kennedy, many normally rational individuals, who oppose violence of all types—who oppose the war in Vietnam—who profess to be men of peace—who oppose capital punishment—the taking of a life—threatened to take the law in their own hands—attempted to physically tear the suspect from the hands of the police, shouting—'Kill him! Kill him now!'—as the police attempted to remove the suspect from the scene and off to jail.

"And only the preceding day, the United States Supreme Court practically doomed capital punishment—and social slobbers, in the State of California, have made it all but impossible for more than fifty convicted criminals facing the death penalty—to ever pay that penalty for their crimes—although there is no question as to their guilt—only technicalities—only legal loopholes.

"Is it any wonder that sixty-three per cent of a group of Americans recently surveyed believe that the courts of law in the United States are just too soft on criminals — that the permissive society in which we live tends to make crime pay.

"Is it any wonder that judges like the Honorable Walter J. Fourt of California asks, 'Are we now searching for truth, or are we searching for error in our courts?'

"Indeed, there appears to be a feeling in some of the courts that the police must be taught a lesson, with the result that vicious and violent criminals are running rampant, and many are turned loose to prey again on innocent victims. Even the murderer knows that we have all but abandoned the rules of common sense, and that he — the criminal — stands a very excellent chance of beating the rap. The scales of justice are weighted heavily on his side, because the United States Supreme Court — highest court in the land — has increasingly made decisions in his favor.

"But now it is time to stop blaming law abiding society and to lay the blame where it belongs — at the doorstep of those who are practicing permissiveness.

"It is time to stir up our law abiding individuals to the awareness that the law of the land is above any individual and that all must abide by it. It must be understood that if we do wrong, we've got to pay the full price — and the penalty must be sure and it must be swift. For if we destroy our system of government by law, we destroy our only means of achieving a stable society. If America is to survive, we must now launch a crusade against pornography, narcotics, thievery, vandalism, armed robbery, murder, and hate.

"It is time to stop this social slobbering — stop showing compassion to junkies, dope peddlers, throat slashers, beatniks, prostitutes, homosexuals, punks — assassins.

"It is time for America to bluntly state that the victim is entitled to greater protection than is the criminal.

"It is time to take another look at our responsibilities as citizens of the United States of America and realize that authority is not opposed to freedom, but to anarchy. Freedom is not opposed to authority, but to slavery. Freedom and authority help each other as truth and charity. Authority without freedom degenerates into tyranny. And freedom without authority degenerates into chaos.

"These are the never changing rules of life. These are the eternal laws by which man must live. Law is based on constant principles that have been accepted and proved workable throughout the ages.

"Wherever man has refused to live by law, he has corrupted civilization. And he has—in the end—destroyed himself."

Grove Negligence Charges Filed

Sparks Fly As R. A. Weeks Charges Supervisors With Lack Of Community Concern

by Jack Pollard

Sparks are being thrown off from the grinding wheel in this community as R. A. Weeks, owner of Weeks Construction Company has charged the County Board of Supervisors with being concerned only about being reelected and not the needs of Lemon Grove.

The charge came after the land developer was turned down in a bid to have 4.3 acres of land rezoned from R-2-A to R-3.

The land in dispute is at the southeast corner of Central and Mass. aves. The present zoning allows for two units to be built on each 6,000 square feet of land.

Weeks wants the four acres rezoned so that he can build a 53 unit apartment unit at an estimated cost of $600,000.

Some 61 signatures were gathered by residents in the area in an effort to block the move to rezone.

The Planning Department of the County of San Diego recommended that the request to change the zoning be turned down to the Board of Supervisors.

The department said that their reasons were as follows:

1. This would constitute a spot zone to satisfy the desires of one land owner, which would set a precedent for future requests to rezone most of the surrounding R-2-A areas.

2. Although the proposed R-3 use of the land would not substantially increase the present density of Lemon Grove, it would initiate a continuing demand for further increase in density which may require substantial redesign of existing and planned public facilities like water supply, sewage disposal, schools and street system.
3. Existing and planned public services and facilities normally are based upon allowable densities of existing zoning. Any redesign should be based upon comprehensive study of all interrelated land uses and public services for the entire community.

4. It is possible with proper planning to obtain greater utilizations of this and surrounding properties without changing the zoning, and thus obtain densities for which public facilities are being planned.

New Zoning Laws Requested

In making the charge Weeks said, "I do not agree with the Supervisors decision. It was a case where they were afraid of losing votes."

"The land in question is a weed patch. It would be a good improvement for Lemon Grove. It would also add to the tax base. The community needs that."

At the same time Weeks called the zoning structure of Lemon Grove antiquated. He said that it is about time that the Supervisors looked at this community instead of the voters' whims.

He said, "If the City of San Diego were to annex this community as part of the city, I think that the first thing they would do is change the zoning laws."

Supervisor Robert C. Dent said that a special use permit could be sought by Weeks but that he would only be able to build 27 units in the area that he wants to build 53.

Robert C. Cousins also on the board of supervisors viewed the property. He felt that the contractor wants to build too many units in a space too small.

Weeks has called for a study on the zoning structure of Lemon Grove. He said that Lemon Grove is lacking consistency in the zoning structure.

"Changes have been made by the supervisors to keep the taxpayer happy and the supervisor in office," Weeks said.

Weeks continued in his charges that "The zoning laws in this community are holding Lemon Grove up in progress. We should not be afraid to move ahead with the times."

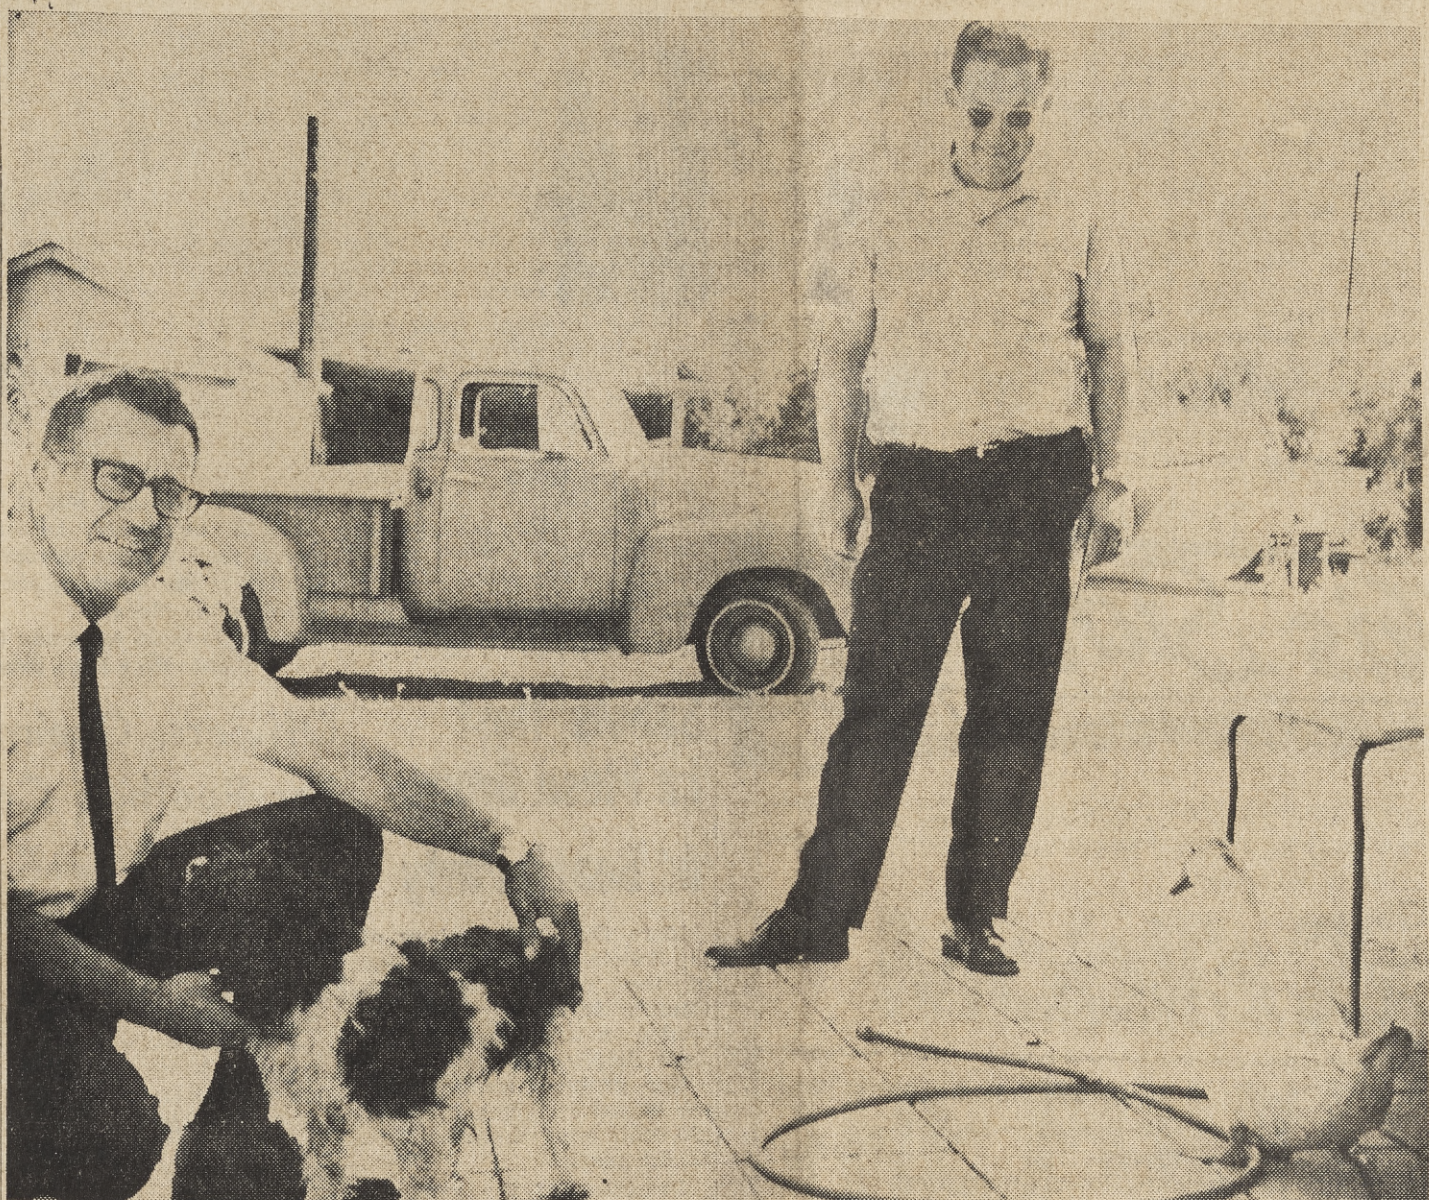

The zoning laws which date back to 1940-42 have been revised according to the wishes of the taxpayers according to Basil "Jack" Lamb, assistant director of planning for the County.

He said that it would be impossible to rezone Lemon Grove completely. It was pointed out in the conversation that Lemon Grove was a "hodge-podge" as far as zoning is concerned.

Supervisor Dent, along with the planning official both were in agreement with Weeks that Lemon Grove has a serious housing shortage.

Land pointed out that there

REZONE QUESTION: R. A. Weeks (left) and Lloyd Fish (right) are shown as they look at a couple of animals on the Week's property at 7225 Central ave. in Lemon Grove. Weeks is asking the County Board of Supervisors to change the zoning structure from R-2-A to R-3. The construction developer said that the new zoning would still allow animals to be held on property in the adjoining areas.

Heavy Patrols Are Ready

Maximum patrol of all heavily traveled routes in the state is planned for the Labor Day holiday weekend, California Highway Patrol Commissioner H. W. Sullivan announced.

For the past two years the fatality rate on the Labor Day weekend has been high.

Traffic accidents took the lives of 59 persons in that period in 1966, the highest for any Labor Day holiday, and 57 in 1967.

Last year the most dangerous part of the weekend was the first 36 hours, starting at 6 p.m. Friday, when fatalities occurred at the rate of .92 per hour.

For the second half of the weekend, the death rate on the streets and highways dropped to .57 per hour.

Sullivan advised that Californians planning to be on the road on the holiday check their routes and know their turn-offs before they leave home.

Also observe the rules of the road, and avoid such hazardous violations as unsafe lane changes, following too closely, and excessive speed.

Lights Out For CdO

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors this week refused to support the installation of signal lights at the Casa de Oro intersection of Camino Road and Conrad drive.

The Spring Valley Fire Protection District which requested the lights will be informed by letter that the county concurs with the State Division of Highways on the Highway 94 intersection.

County Engineer David K. Spear told the supervisors that the Conrad pedestrian crossing will be removed for the safety of school children and a new pedestrian crossing in install 200 feet to the west of Conrad at the signalized intersection of Kenora street.

The signals will be modified to include "Walk—Don't Walk" lights.

Program Is County First

Inhalation Therapy Course

Grossmont College is offering two new programs in its fall semester.

One is a class in Inhalation Therapy leading to a degree as an Associate in Science while the other is a television course in general geology.

The inhalation therapy class is the only one of its type offered in the county. It provides a person for a back ground to give a patient adequate oxygenation and proper elimination of carbon dioxide.

Application of therapeutic gases, along with devices for artificial breathing, the administration of aerosols, and the use of artificial airway to relieve obstructions in breathing will be included in the class.

The program will cover four semesters and one summer session. Classroom work will be coordinated with hospital experience under supervision.

The curriculum will meet the national standards for certification. The college has applied for certification by the American Medical Association as an approved School of Inhalation Therapy.

The course will officially commence in the spring semester, in February, 1969. Certain preparatory courses must be taken during the fall semester, starting Sept. 16.

Enrollment will be limited to 20 students. Applications deadlines are tomorrow.

The program is open to all residents of the County. They should be brought to the attention of the Director of Nursing Education or Admissions Office at Grossmont College.

The television course, in geology will be another first. The course is sponsored jointly to the College and the San Diego County Junior College Association.

It will consist of 32 one-hour television lectures on Channel 15 (UHF) at 4:30 p.m. each Monday and Tuesday for sixteen weeks. They will start commencement on Sept. 16.

The course may be taken for college credit upon payment of $5 registration fee and attendance at a registration meeting.

Two evening seminars as well as an examination period are included in the cost. A textbook, as needed, may be purchased in the College bookstore.

Talks, films and lectures including such topics as atoms, molecules, structure of mineral, rocks and volcanic activity will be covered.

Attendance at a meeting scheduled for 7 p.m., Friday, September 20, in room 370 of the Grossmont College science building, for registration and fee payment is required of those taking the course for college credit.

Also required for college credit, is attendance at two evening seminars set for 7 p.m., Friday, October 11, and Friday, December 6, 1968.

The seminars will consist of a two-hour lecture-discussion period and a one-hour quiz. A final examination schedule from 7 to 10 p.m., Friday, January 24, 1969 will complete the course.

STATISTIC: Labor Day statistics mean a lot to people like the National Safety Council. It means a lot to other people also... like families. National holidays are wonderful, when they are not marked up with fatal accidents or serious auto collisions that may leave the scars on people for the remainder of their life. Don't let this happen to you when you are driving throughout the Labor Day weekend.

To The Editor:

Let's set the record straight. The Review was established in August 1948 by Brent Payne, who came to Lemon Grove at the behest of the late George Casteel, who built a cement block building at 7812 Broadway for the purpose of housing Lemon Grove's own newspaper.

At the time two other newspapers were published under a Lemon Grove dateline: "The Lemon Grove Homeland News," and "The Suburbanite". The News was printed and published in La Mesa by Reed and Son in conjunction with their La Mesa Scout. The Suburbanite was published and printed by Brecht and Son at their commercial printing plant on Main street. In 1949 it was sold to Hegland and published and printed at his La Mesa Pictorial plant.

Payne published the Review until February 1949 when he sold it in June of that year. I sold it to you in March 1952 because of severe illness. You know the rest from then on.

The Review has been printed and published in Lemon Grove during its entire 20 years.

I extend to you and The Review best wishes for another 20 years of success and prosperity.

G. Ray Graham
Retired Publisher

Dear Editor:

Just a note to congratulate the Lemon Grove Review on its 20th birthday.

I've enjoyed keeping abreast of the community's progress through the Review, and know that the future holds continuing growth and prosperity for all people concerned.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,
Mike Schaefer

College Evening Program Draws Record Response

Grossmont College is making preparations for the largest evening program in its history. With the deadline for application approaching, Dr. Edward L. Krehbiel, Assistant to the Dean of the Evening Division, announced that 146 different courses would be offered in the evening during the fall semester.

According to Dr. Krehbiel this represents a 20-percent increase over the number of evening courses offered during the 1967 fall semester. Among the new courses offered for the first time in the evening will be a course in marketing, propaganda analysis, basic quantity food preparation, food purchasing, conversational German, human development: implications for child guidance, general physics, introduction to U. S. government and politics, introduction to scientific thought, Latin-American civilization, and principles of parliamentary procedure.

Many of the other courses, offered during the spring semester, will be repeated during the fall semester for the first time.

Deadline for application for enrollment in evening classes is tomorrow, Friday, August 30. Applications forms and schedule of classes available may be obtained in the Admissions Office, Grossmont College.

Star Boarders Looking For Housing, Rooms

Looking for a "Star Boarder"? Or maybe you have an extra bedroom that could serve as a rental for a Southwestern College student. If you have a room rental, just call the College 420-1080 and list your name with the Student Activities Office, Ext. 63.

"Every fall we act as a clearing house for students in need of a place to live," explained Wayne L. Allen, Dean of Student Activities. "Many of our students are self-supporting, or are from out-of-town, and they need a quiet room in which to stay and study."

Inquiries for rooms have started coming in, so we at Southwestern College would appreciate getting information on what's available in our district.

Both men and women students are listed, so prospective landlords could indicate a preference, if any.

POWER-PACK: Bill Worden (left), coach Dave Fager (center) and Vince Campoli (right) are shown as they get a good look at part of their equipment that they will be wearing for Monte Vista High School during the fall football season. Worden will be playing as a flanker-back and punter for the Monarch's while Campoli will be their No. 1 running back. The Monarch's went with a 1-6-1 record with Fager in his first season as head coach. Fager pointed out that he is looking for an aggressive ball club to take to the field for Monte Vista High this year. He said, "We are a young and inexperienced ballteam with good prospects."

Area High Schools Slate Labor Day Football Practice

Labor Day is a holiday for some people but for 85 members of the varsity and junior varsity football teams at Monte Vista High School it is going to be a day of grinding.

They are going to report to head football coach Dave Fager at 8 a.m. as they swing into double sessions. Helix High School will be basically the same story.

Mt. Miguel High School has elected to give the players the day of rest as they open practice on Tuesday morning at 8 a.m. They will have three sessions per day.

Grid iron action will open for all three schools when they take part in the 8th Annual Grossmont League Carnival on Sept. 20 at Aztec Bowl starting at 7:30 p.m.

The carnival, "A Salute to Dr. John Warburton," will see Monte Vista locking horns against Santana while Mt. Miguel will take on Granite Hills. Helix will go against the strong Grossmont team.

At Hammesmidt, head football coach at Helix High School said that his club reported for team physicals yesterday.

He has eight returning lettermen on the team. He said, "We do lack experience in key positions."

He will be looking for Bruce Walton, tackle, who stands 6'6" and weighs in at 270 lbs. to beef the line up.

As a wing back, Bob Lawe is expected to be back in action. He was injured about mid-season last year. He tore the webbing between his fingers and had a bad hand throughout the second half of the season.

Gene Rhoads, a senior will be playing in the half-back position.

He stands 6-1 and is 190 lbs. He played in junior varsity ball at the end of last year. The quarterback position is open.

Helix will open with a powerful Hoover High on Sept. 20 at Helix. Hammesmidt said that they expect a "tough" game as they open play.

At Mt. Miguel High School, head coach Ben Cipranic said that he is looking forward to having five or six returning lettermen report for their physicals tomorrow morning.

He said, "We lost our big guns from last year's club. We are going to try to keep the hustle and the winning attitude that we had last year."

At quarterback Mike Tyre, a senior has a good crack at running the club. Mt. Miguel had a 6-4 record last year.

They will have triple sessions. They will run from 8:30 a.m. to 10:22:30 a.m. and 2-4 p.m.

At Monte Vista, coach Fager said that he expects a team that will have many surprises. He said, "We have a young team that has that unknown factor."

They will see Mike Nush, a senior, as starting quarterback. Nush started a couple of games last year but didn't play the full season as varsity leader.

Cajon Speedway Auto Racing Highlights

Two big racing programs are set for Cajon Speedways 3/8 mile paved oval this holiday weekend on Saturday night the super stock cars will go open competition with a 50-lap main event and a 25-lap semi.

Sunday evening the last of the California Racing Assn. Sprint car meets will bring the top name drivers in the west coast to the local smoke-path.

Winner of the last open competition, Bill Butts of El Cajon, will be out seated with four main event wins so far this year. Second place in the May 11th race was top point leader Tex Kimbrell of Imperial Beach, who also has four wins.

Seven other winners will be out to challenge including Richard White, Escondido; (3) Bucky Peralta, El Cajon; (3) George Esau, San Diego; (1) Vance Butler, La Cresta; (1) Bill Bramley, Spring Valley; (1) Odie Robertson, Santee; (1) and last week winner Bill Brady, Lakeside; (1).

Top stock cars and drivers from Ascot and Orange Show speedways are expected to a quarterback is leadership," continued Fager. And senior Mike Nush is expected to fill the bill. Nush did get some experience last year as backup QB for graduate Chuck Downing.

Bill Worden will do the punting chores this year. Ernie Arroyo may be the wide receiver. Bob Westcott will be counted upon to carry a large bulk of the ground attack.

"Grossmont, El Capitan, and Helix will be the teams to beat this year in that order with Granite Hills having the best quarterback in Tim Doerr," remarked coach Fager.

The season opens on Sept. 20 with the Carnival at Aztec Bowl. The first league battle will be at El Cajon on Oct. 4. The Monarch's coaching staff consists of Dave Fager as head coach, and Bob Bass, John Boyle, Mary Lacey, Jack Lacey, and Marie Mendez as assistant coaches.

So Monte Vista's gridders have their work cut out for them but many feel that with a few breaks they could do surprisingly well.

join the competition since they will be racing on Labor Day this week. This race will be the best stock car competition on the west coast during the regular season.

A guaranteed purse of $3,000.00 has been posted with $1,750.00 in the 50 lap main and $600.00 in the 25 lap Semi. A 15 lap consolation race and two ten lap heats with 20 cars will fill out the program.

School Registration Begins September 4

GUEST SPEAKER: Grant Chipps, operations supervisor of the El Cajon district office of the Social Security Administration was guest speaker of the Spring Valley Rotary Club at a Friday noon luncheon at Langhorns Restaurant in Spring Valley.

The supervisor told Rotarians of the history of Social Security and of the benefits that may be derived by young workers who are disabled or unable to work. Chipps has been working for the administration for 13 years.

Registration of children enrolling for the first time in the elementary and junior high schools in Lemon Grove will begin Wednesday, Sept. 3 according to Byron Netley, superintendent of the Lemon Grove Elementary School District.

Parents shall bring proof of birth date for pupils being enrolled in kindergarten, and evidence of previous school enrollment for older children.

Certain health information, including proof of immunization against polio and measles, is also required, Netley said. Classes will resume Monday, Sept. 16.

Children attending local schools at the close of the semester last June need not register. Children who will be attending district schools for the first time in Sept. must be registered.

A child legally enrolled in a school outside the district may be properly admitted to school and be placed in the proper grade upon registration and presentation of evidence of enrollment and grade placement in the former school of attendance, Netley said.

In order to be admitted to kindergarten a pupil must be five years old on or before Dec. 2. Minimum entering age for first-graders in the Lemon Grove School District is five years and nine months.

A birth certificate, baptismal certificate duly attested, passport, or affidavit from parent or guardian should be presented at the time of registration.

Important health information such as dates of smallpox, polio, and diphtheria inoculations should also be brought at that time. Both oral and Salk vaccines are acceptable polio inoculations for registration.

Excluding those parents who have indicated they are adverse to the new polio law, polio inoculations are mandatory. Similar exemption may be obtained for the measles vaccination.

If a child has not received inoculations or vaccinations before entering school, he will be given a two-week grace period in order to do so.

If there is a question of what school is to be attended, information may be secured by calling the district office, at 469-4134.

Holiday Mail Collections

There will be no collection of mail boxes in the area except at the Post Office and the collection boxes located in the front and rear of the Postal facility.

On Labor Day there will be no collection of mail after Sunday, Sept. 1st until Tuesday, September 3. Mail delivery on holidays will consist of Special Delivery and perishables.

Zoning Battle Rages In Lemon Grove Area

are homes in areas designed for commercial use while commercial buildings are mingled in segments that call for residential dwellings only, according to earlier plans.

The planning board said that the housing development would require substantial redesign of existing and planned public facilities, like water supply, sewage disposal, schools and the street system.

Weeks said that he had contacted the various agencies that would "have to undergo substantial redesigning." He said that no major work would have to be done in any of the areas mentioned.

Sewage Problems
He said, "These agencies would not be 'taxed' on usage. The units would not work any heavier than what they are now."

The developer pointed out that the agencies said that they are using only about one-third of their available power now and that his project would have no bearing on additional needs of output.

Weeks did say that water sewage was a problem on his land. "The street and land run-off goes right on my land," he pointed out.

"In order to take care of this and the land to be able to build anything, I am going to have to construct underground ducts to eliminate the problem at my own expense."

Another point brought up by both the board of supervisor and the petitioners was that of creation of a traffic hazard.

Petitioners felt that cars from the apartment project would block driveways adjacent to the complex.

Weeks pointed out that the plans that had been submitted to the department for consideration included 73 off-street parking places for the 53 units.

He said that driveway access would be in two places; one, on Mass. ave., and the other on Central ave. The additional roadway construction would be done by Weeks on his own land.

Persons signing the petition included Tom Wilkinson, Barbara Wilkinson, L. Pettingill, Vera L. Steinhoff, Lena M. Anderson, R. E. La Dam, and George A. La Dam.

Also signing were Gene Taylor, Nellie J. Taylor, Mary A. Waggoner, Ernest E. Waggoner, W. B. White, Anna L. Zak,

W. Daughman Succumbed By Heart Attack

Word was received Aug. 23 of the passing of William (Bill) Daughman, former Spring Valleyite, at his home in Grants Pass, Oregon.

Mrs. James Wilson of Calavo dr., Spring Valley, long time friend of the Daughmans, said Bill had apparently succumbed to a heart attack.

She said she was going to Grants Pass to be with Mrs. Daughman (Dorothy) during her time of sorrow.

She said also that Leonard Hayes, a foster son of the Daughmans was going to Grants Pass. She said it was too early to know of any funeral arrangements, but thought they would be handled by a veterans' organization.

Bill Daughman, a retired Navyman, was a veteran of World War I. Much of his military service was spent aboard submarines. He had been a member of World War I Veterans Foothills Barracks 1774 and the Fleet Reserve in San Diego.

A long time resident of Spring Valley, Daughman and wife, Dorothy had lived on Olive dr., just behind the quonset building at Bancroft dr.

It was in that building the first Spring Valley Bulletin was published, with Daughman one of three men as the original publishers.

He was also one of the local persons who were responsible for originating the Spring Valley Fire Department.

Active in community affairs, Daughman served two terms as president of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce. He helped plan, construct and maintain the Chamber's quarters and hall at 9050 Memory ln.

Later Bill and Dorothy Daughman moved to Palm ave. in Lemon Grove, where they stayed until buying their place in Grants Pass, Ore.

Assessed Valuations Increase As Taxes Decrease

The average property assessment in San Diego County was confirmed at 23.5% of market value, up 1% from 1967, according to the State Board of Equalization.

At the same time, the County Board of Supervisors have reduced the taxation by two cents per $100 of assessed valuation for the 1968-69 period in San Diego County.

Chairman Richard Nevins said the state-wide weighted average dipped from 23.2% to 23% "because the percentage in Los Angeles County, which has 38% of the state's taxable property, fell nearly a point."

Percentages for every county but one — Santa Barbara — changed in the year as 49 county assessors strove for a uniform 25% assessment percentage required by law in 1971.

However, Nevins, who represents Southern California, said that "Most of the changes were fractional. There were almost as many reasons for the variations as there are counties."

Nine assessors have legally chosen a lesser percentage than the 25% goal this year. They are Stanislaus, 20; Fresno, 22; Napa, 22½; Marin, Imperial, Siskiyou and Trinity, 23; Sacramento 23.6; and Humboldt, 24%.

"If the assessor is within a point either way of his announced ratio or of the state-wide average, taxpayers can consider him on target," Nevins said.

The percentages of market value help decide the distribution of $425 million in school equalization aid, affect school construction loan repayments, and can be used in local equalization assessment appeals.

Generally, counties with lower ratios of assessed to market value were re-appraised by the Board in the last year.

These surveys tend to find a lower average assessment level for the county than the economic indicators which are used between the Board's triennial appraisals.

Vacations are for fun and games, the San Diego County Heart Association agrees, but reckless playing, like reckless driving, can have tragic consequences — especially for the middle-aged "summer athlete."

Know your limits and quit early.

Modified Staff Plans Confab

The Communications Gap will be the theme for the fall conference of the Modified Staff organization of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District to be held Sept. 4-6 at the Torrey Pines Inn.

The conference is the opening activity of the year for Modified Staff, a group which is advisory to the superintendent and which includes administrators plus elected representatives of the teaching staff.

Noel Burch, principal of Spring Valley Elementary School and conference chairman, said the generation gap, interracial tension, values, teacher preparation, and the communication process itself will be discussed.

Four-fifths of Afghanistan is mountainous.

Preliminary Murder Hearings Tomorrow Morning

Three men will appear for preliminary hearing tomorrow in the murder of Gerrit Hofstee of 2040 Sweetwater rd., Spring Valley.

The three to appear will be Roy Gene Joseph, 21, of 3135 K. st., Andre Ray Shelby, 21, of 3860 Hemlock st., and Johnny W. Tripp, 21, of 702 Escuela st., all of San Diego.

Hofstee, 36, the father of five children, died Aug. 6 in the Kaiser Hospital from massive head injuries inflicted on Sat., Aug. 3 in a parking lot attack.

A group of young men gathered around the car that Hofstee and two other occupants were in.

As Hofstee left the car in the Mullins Liquor Store parking lot at 30th st. and Imperial ave., San Diego he was attacked by the youths.

A wrench was used on Hofstee in the attack. While on the ground the attacker continued to hit and kick him.

The trio was arraigned Aug. 7 in proceedings and were ordered to be held by the San Diego Police without bail.

Hofstee was on his way home from work at the National Steel Co. when he wanted to stop and purchase some beer when the murder took place.

Student Housing Needed By Many

An anticipated increase in the number of students attending Grossmont College is expected to contribute to a housing shortage for students.

Many students from outlying areas of the Grossmont Junior College District who want to live closer to the college and foreign students, as well as nearby students who choose to maintain their own residences have all contributed to the expected shortage of suitable housing.

According to Dean of Student Activities John Burdick, persons having rooms or apartments available, with or without board, may call Grossmont College, 465-1700, Ext. 268, during business hours.

Information on the housing offered will be taken and listings maintained for interested students to inspect. Dean Burdick said, "The college assumes no liability for off-campus housing, either to the students or to the landlord."

"This is simply a focal point for housing information, maintained as a service to our students and the community."

Stereo Tapes Taken

Walter Jordan, of 3454 Sweetwater rd., Spring Valley recently reported a $95 loss in stereo tapes and a carrying case that had been taken from the inside of his auto.

AROUND SPRING VALLEY

Diabetics Clinic Questioned Here

by Tommy Thomas

When the diabetic clinic was in operation in Spring Valley a few ago, I noted quite a few persons there to be examined.

As a result of this clinic many a Spring Valleyite was surprised to find himself a diabetic and began medication. But what about the children who are subjected to this disease?

Are there many Spring Valley children affected?

Actually it is nothing to worry too much about if the disease is treated properly and soon, we are told. A short item in a recent issue of the Women's Medical News Service viewed the child diabetic.

Dateline Cleveland, Ohio, it stated, "When a child with diabetes, and his parents, understand that the child can lead a normal life, be active in sports, do most of the things his contemporaries do, then the burden of dealing with this chronic disease is immensely lightened."

This view was expressed at a medical meeting recently by Dr. William Wallace, professor of pediatrics at Casa Western Reserve University School of Medicine here.

"Specialists around the country agree that the child diabetic should be taught the nature of his condition, why insulin shots or other medication as well as diet are important to him."

The youngster should be encouraged to accept responsibility for the daily management of his disease."

The article went on to point out that there are many summer camps for diabetic children, where they will feel they are not an "odddity." To obtain a directory of such camps write to the American Diabetes Association, 18 East 48 st. New York City, N.Y.

With school to begin Sept. 16 our thoughts are on our children, their preparation and their safety. I am especially concerned about their safe bike riding as many of them are still disobeying the rules of safe bicycle riding.

Most of the infractions are riding on the wrong side of the street (riding against the traffic instead of with it), riding two on one bike and cutting in front of oncoming cars. But the other day I saw the ultimate; a boy on a unicycle riding along busy Campo rd.

Congratulations to George Michael Vogler, of 3455 Valley View ln., Spring Valley. He received his bachelor of science (business) degree at the University of Colorado at Boulder on Aug. 24.

Receiving certificates at California State Polytechnic College on Aug. 16 for a journalism study course, were five students from the east San Diego County area: Bruce Cahill, of 1200 Grand ave., Spring Valley, a Mt. Miguel High School grad; and John McQuinn, of 774 Laguna ave., El Cajon, a grad of Granite High School.

Elected for overseas study from Polytechnic College, was Kirk A. Breedlove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burke Breedlove, of

Banquet Honors Lucius Lawton, Retired Fire Chief On September 5

What is true love and devotion? For one resident of Spring Valley he has found out what his vocation in life has been. He is Lucius Lawton who recently retired from the Spring Valley Fire Department as assistant fire chief.

Lawton will be feted by members of the community at the Memory ln. meeting house on Sept. 5 at 6:30 p.m. for his help in creating the Fire Department.

More than 200 persons are expected to be on hand to honor Lucius at the roast beef dinner. Tickets are available from Richard Allen, sr., at 469-8747.

Allen said that area fire chiefs along with the members of the Spring Valley Fire Department Board of Directors will be included as invited guests. Supervisor Robert C. Dent is expected to be on hand also.

Lawton is the first firefighter to retire from the Spring Valley Fire Department. He began his career with the department in 1947-48 when it was a volunteer fire fighting outfit.

At that time, and prior to the formation of the fire department, Lawton played an important part in laying out plans for the foundation work.

Through the help of Bill Doughman, who passed away last week, and the aid of Howard Belchamber and Donald Erwin, the fire department was established.

Boundaries were set up for the Spring Valley firefighters and the appointment of a fire commissioner and board of directors was elected. Again Lawton helped to lay the ground work.

The first Spring Valley fire house was again built with Lawton's help. He and Daniel Schultz donated portions of their land to build a station.

The station, still standing, is Station No. 1 on Troy st. Lawton also played an important part in securing funds from the townspeople to build the station house.

Lawton, prior to working for the department full time, was a building contractor. He did most of the work on the actual construction of the fire house.

Today, Spring Valley has three stations with five pumps, two ambulances and a rescue team with equipment to protect the 35,000 person community that has $36 million of assessed valuations in property.

The department has been one of the primer movers in the formation of a mutual aid pact that is now in effect here. They are also one of the leaders in the county-wide communications program that is being developed.

Lawton who is 65, is the father of two sons and daughters. His son Bob is a fireman while Howard is a captain on the department. His son-in-law, Daryle Stager is also on the department as a battalion chief.

The Lawtons have 10 grandchildren. They live at 8778 Bigford st., Spring Valley.

HONORS: Lucius Lawton, assistant fire chief, recently retired from the Spring Valley Fire Department will be honored at a reception-dinner to be held at the Spring Valley Meeting House on Memory ln. on Sept. 6 at 6:30 p.m. More than 200 persons are expected to be on hand to honor the firefighter.
